

Neighborhood association affiliations

Board: The governing group for the organization, individuals that have accepted the responsibility to build and maintain the association, and to focus on the mission of the organization.

Members: Volunteers and supporter and those interested in the mission of the association

Eligible public: individuals that are eligible to be members (defined by bylaws)

Public: everyone